GAUTENG DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH ACKNOWLEDGES HIGH COURT RULING ON RADIATION ONCOLOGY SERVICES

The Gauteng Department of Health acknowledges the judgment delivered by the Gauteng High Court regarding the provision of radiation oncology services to cancer patients.

The Department is in the process of carefully studying the ruling to fully appreciate its contents and implications. Once this review has been concluded, the Department will determine and communicate the appropriate course of action.

The Gauteng Department of Health remains committed to ensuring access to quality healthcare services and will continue to engage all relevant stakeholders in addressing matters affecting patient care.
